

FLUENCY 1

Circle the commas in the sentences below.

1. I went to the shop and bought apples, bananas and oranges.
2. The stripes on Darcey's socks are black, white, red and blue.
3. He invited Alfie, Marlon, Anita and Millie to his party.
4. Mr Jones, Miss Cho and Mrs Green are my favourite teachers.

FLUENCY 2

Add commas to the lists in Asha's sentences.

1. My favourite colours are purple yellow orange and green.
2. I would like fish chips mushy peas and gravy for dinner.

FLUENCY 3

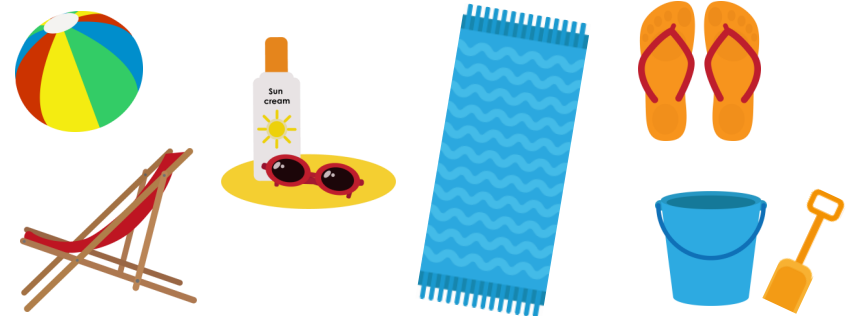

Tick (✓) to show which sentence or sentences have used commas correctly.

1. I brought my, pen, pencil and rubber in my pencil case.
2. My pet rats are called Tilly, Ruby, Bertie and Lola.
3. Jane has a sandwich, a drink, a packet of crisps in her lunchbox.

FLUENCY 4

Use the pictures to complete the sentence using a list.

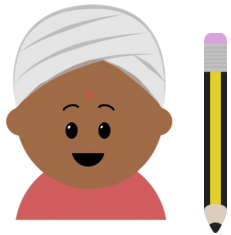

When I went to the beach, I took...

REASONING 1

Ranjit is writing a list of his favourite foods...

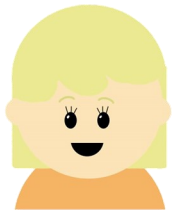

I really like to eat pizza,
red, apples, yoghurt,
and pancakes.

Explain and correct the errors he has made.

REASONING 2

Jane and Millie wrote sentences about their trip to the park.

I saw ducks, fish, geese and swans at the park.

I saw swans, geese, fish and ducks at the park.

What is the same and what is different?

REASONING 3

True or False?

You can never have more than four items in a list sentence.

Prove it!

REASONING 4

Marlon mixed up words and phrases from his sentence and missed out the commas.

today.

and

trainers

I am wearing trousers

a shirt

How many different ways can you order the words and punctuate the sentence correctly?

