

FLUENCY 1

Circle the commas used to separate adjectives.

1. The bright, green ball bounced across the road.
2. The lawnmower is behind the old, rotten shed.
3. The gigantic, scaly dragon blew fire towards the knights.
4. The wizard cast a mysterious spell on the young, innocent children.

FLUENCY 2

Tick the sentences that use commas correctly.

The tiny kitten was in the small brown, box.

I stepped inside the red, racing car.

Mum told you to move your dirty, smelly socks.

FLUENCY 3

Rewrite the sentences to include adjectives.

1. The _____ , _____ bird sang loudly in the trees.
2. My _____ , _____ jumper is in the wash.
3. Above the houses, there are _____ , _____ clouds drifting by.
4. Ranjit is a _____ , _____ boy who always works hard.

FLUENCY 4

Write adjectives to describe the butterfly.

Use two of the adjectives to write a sentence.

REASONING 1

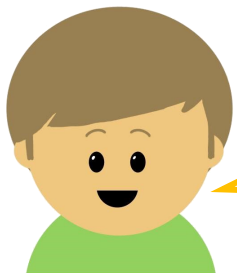

Odd One Out!

1. Quietly, the small, grey mouse crept through the castle looking for the golden key.
2. The sly fox dug the deepest hole to protect his family from the angry farmers.
3. Anita watched the beautiful princess turn into an ugly, green frog.

Convince me.

REASONING 2

Find Jerry's mistake.

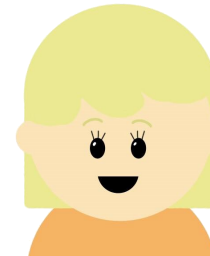

The shy, little, girl collected her award in front of the whole school.

Explain how you know.

REASONING 3

True or False?

Jane has used commas correctly.

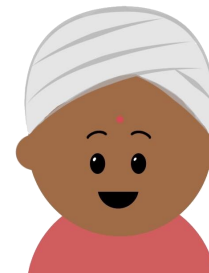

The big, bad wolf jumped out from behind a huge, oak tree in the forest.

Prove it!

REASONING 4

Ranjit thinks there should be a comma between the words warm and duvet.

I threw off my warm duvet and quickly jumped out of bed.

Is he correct? Convince me!

