

FLUENCY 1

Match the sentences to their missing punctuation.

The sun is shining

?

Help

.

Where is your bag

!

FLUENCY 2

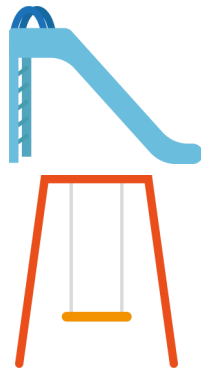

Tick (✓) to show which sentence has been punctuated correctly.

We went to the park last week?

How did you get there.

It is time to go home?

What a great day!

FLUENCY 3

Add the missing punctuation to the end of each sentence.

1. What time are we having lunch later___
2. The flowers around school look beautiful___
3. Where are we going for dinner___
4. Darcey couldn't wait for home time because she didn't feel very well___
5. Who is going swimming today at 3 o'clock___
6. What a nice man___
7. I bought some new school shoes yesterday___
8. Which book do you want to read___

FLUENCY 4

Add one question mark and one exclamation mark in the correct places below...

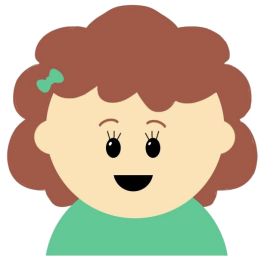

Stop Where do you think you're going

REASONING 1

Darcey is wondering which sentence has been punctuated correctly.

How kind you are!

How kind you are?

What advice would you give to her?

REASONING 2

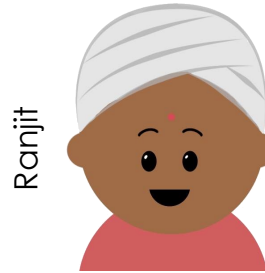

True or False?

1. A full stop can be used at the end of any sentence.
2. A question mark comes after a full stop.
3. An exclamation mark can only be used to show anger.

Explain your reasoning!

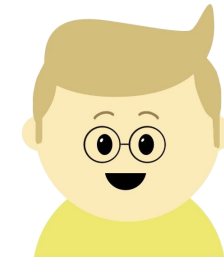

REASONING 3

Explain and correct the errors that Ranjit and Alfie have made.

How old are you!

I am nine years old!

REASONING 4

Odd One Out!

1. Do you like orange juice__
2. My favourite drink is orange juice__
3. Would you like some orange juice__

